M.P. COUNCIL: Members
Study Change in Bike Law

The Menlo Park City Council this week outlined the necessity of revising local bicycle ordinances in Palo Alto, Menlo Park and Redwood City. City Atty. James T. O'Keefe Jr. said literal interpretation of the Menlo Park ordinance would require all bicyclists traveling through Menlo Park to obtain a Menlo Park bicycle license.

Both Palo Alto and Redwood City have the same ordinance, said O'Keefe, who pointed out that some revision should be made so bicyclists can operate in all three towns under one license. The city council will study proposed changes and recommend their adoption in all three cities.

Upon a plea for $75 to help pay for enclosing the Menlo Park civilian air observation post with glass windows to protect aircraft spotters, the city council suggested that both Palo Alto and Atherton should pay one-third the cost, since the post serves all territory between Los Altos and Belmont. City Clerk F. I. Kurtz was instructed to send letters to this effect to both Palo Alto and Atherton.

Proposed uniform curfew regulations, which would impose a 10 p.m. week night and midnight Friday and Saturday curfew on all minors, was indefinitely postponed upon the recommendation of Police Comr. Edward McGurran Jr. McGurran said the city had no need for the curfew, and its adoption would impose unnecessary hardships upon some residents.

Diagonal parking near El Camino Real and the railroad station on Live Oak, Oak Grove, Santa Cruz and Merrill Aves. was approved by the council.

Redwood City Youth On College Committee

SAN JOSE—Irving (Izzy) Gold, son of Samuel Gold, 761 Woodside Rd., Redwood City, has been appointed a member of San Jose State College's annual Revelries committee, student body officers announced.

Gold, who is a senior commerce major, also is a member of the student council and was chairman of the annual "Gripe Dinner" last week. He belongs to the Spartan Knights, honorary society, and has held a variety of class and student body offices.

GARDENS:
8 Steps
In Planning

F. D. Klyver of San Mateo Junior College has listed eight steps necessary for planning a successful victory garden:

1. Make a list of your family's favorite vegetables.

2. Estimate just about the amount of each variety you use each year.

3. Look over the available space in your garden, or in the vacant lot next door, or inquire about the space available for your use in the nearest community garden that may have been established in your vicinity for the emergency.

4. Decide whether you are going to produce all the seasonal vegetables you need or whether you are going to produce only the family's special favorites or those needed in the greatest amounts. There are families in San Mateo who have grown their own entire supply of vegetables since Spring, 1942.

5. For each kind of vegetable you are going to grow obtain a list of the recommended varieties for this community.

6. Work out a planting schedule or calendar for the entire year providing for a continuous use of all parts of the garden by a careful rotation of crops.

7. Estimate the productivity of each of your varieties or obtain the best available information on this point.

8. Indicate on your "use plan" the correct amount of space or row for each variety.

GUARDSMAN PLEADS GUILTY

Boy V. Comara, state guardsman accused of stealing tools from a Redwood City barber shop, pleaded guilty in superior court at Redwood City yesterday afternoon and asked probation. The case was continued one week for a report from Probation Officer Francis Robinson.

Recognition

National recognition in the field of life insurance has come to Glenn R. Baker, San Bruno, former city councilman of his home city, and widely known throughout Northern California for his civic leadership and work on behalf of the Republican party. In recognition of the record he has established in the past two years, Baker has been named district manager for Equitable Life Insurance Company of Iowa, with offices in San Francisco and San Jose. His territory will include the counties of San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Benito and Monterey.

Two R.C. Students On Rally Committee

SAN JOSE—Jane Roberts and Paul Mallon, both of Redwood City, have been appointed members of the San Jose State College rally committee, Lorraine Litcomb, chairman, said today.

Both are freshmen, graduates of Sequoia High School. Miss Roberts is an elementary education major and Mallon is a physical education major and assistant yell leader at State.

91 Men
Leave
In Draft

Selective Service Board 106, serving Redwood City, San Carlos and Belmont, this week is sending its two largest quotas of selectees to San Francisco for final physical examinations and induction. Board Chairman Arthur V. Swift said.

Wednesday's group was made up, mainly, of 19 and 20-year-olds, who registered last June. Two are 18-year-old youths who requested early induction, and 13 are older men who had been deferred previously because of war industry employment or limited dependency.

Today's group will comprise married men, draft board members predicted.

"So far, no married men who are providing homes for children have been drafted here, and we still have a list of eligible men without taking these," Swift said. "Drafting of men providing for children would take a special order for reclassification, which we have not received thus far."

Although only a few of the 18-year-old eligibles have been included on draft lists to date, preliminary physical examinations of most of them were made last Friday night, the board indicated. These will be called up in February, probably after the 10th.

Those who were sent to San Francisco Wednesday were:

George Schrader, Mario Regalado, Bruce Stewart, Richard Philip, Robert Kirchner, Gerald Masterson, Chester Hefner Jr., Clyde Whitehurst, Donald Rondon, Kenneth Grantham, Albert Pastorino, Eugene Bayne, Victor Boicelli, Emmitt Stephens.

Thomas Clarke Jr., William Merola, Gordon Newton, Thomas Johnson, Wallace Campbell, George Amoroso, Joel Mansfield, Elza Gerian, Elbert Nichols, Dallas Graham, Arthur Murphy, Ralph Early, Raymond Hodgdon, Joseph Corven, Sumner Caldwell, Errett Stephenson, Gerald Kiefer, Louis Canata, Peter Holmes, Richard Lowe, Robert Meginnis, Dennis S. Fox and Wilbur H. Preston.

Transfers who were included on today's list are Louis E. Lucchesi, Dewitt Stevenson, John E. Schultz, William C. Tompkins, Donald L. Bell, Harry P. Bosch, Vasto Sardi, Darold Schubert and Benito A. Moreno.

R. C. MAN:
Curran
Included

The names of two Peninsula men were included in a list issued by the War Department naming 45 California army men held prisoners by the Japanese according to the Associated Press.

The Peninsula men are Second Lt. James R. Curran, husband of Betty Evans Curran of Emerald Lake and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curran, 467 Harrison Ave., Redwood City; and PFC Jacob L. Ford, son of Mrs. Ruth Alice Ford, 653 Huntington Ave., San Bruno.

Mrs. Betty Curran informed the Tribune on Dec. 29 that she had received a wire from Washington telling her that her flier husband at first listed as "missing in action" was alive and in Japanese hands.

Although he is listed by the War Department as "interned by Japan in the Philippines at an untested camp," the army flier's mother today expressed the belief that her son had been taken to Formosa or Japan.

According to a letter which followed the December wire, Lieutenant Curran's mailing address now lists him as "formerly of the Philippines, care of the Japanese Red Cross."

Curran's wife and parents have written to the lieutenant, but as yet have received no answer and no information concerning his health.

The flier, who met his wife when both attended Sequoia High School, was stationed at Nichols Field near Manila and had not been heard from since the fall of Bataan. He is 23 and took his flight training with the army at Moffett Field and Stockton. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Evans of Emerald Lake became his bride in May, 1941, just eight days before he left for foreign duty.

Belmont To Get Bus Shelter

BELMONT—A shelter for the convenience of bus commuters, to be erected at the corner of Ralston Blvd. and El Camino, was the main item of discussion at Thursday's short meeting of the Belmont City Council.

Such a shelter has long been deemed a necessity by Belmont bus commuters, who delegated C. J. Messner, Greyhound agent for Belmont, to ask the bus company to provide a shelter. When the company failed to act on the request, commuters' protests voiced in previous council meetings prompted the council to instruct City Atty. J. E. McCurdy to take the matter to the railroad commission.

McCurdy has been informed by the commission that Greyhound will be instructed to provide some shelter from the weather for the commuters, he told the council last night.

The city will co-operate with the bus line in erecting the shelter, council decided.

Only other business conducted by council was the authorization issued to Manuel Valladao and Joseph Belati, city street department employees, to build a covered receptacle for the storage of tin cans collected for salvage to protect them from rust.

SEQUOIA: 4 New Teachers To Join High School Staff

When Sequoia High School students report Monday morning to begin a new semester, they will be greeted by four new teachers, names of whom were announced by Supt. A. C. Argo.

Beatrice L. McGovern of San Francisco has been added to the commercial studies staff. Miss McGovern, who succeeds the late Miss Audrey Dicken, is a graduate of the University of California and has had teaching as well as actual business experience, Argo said.

From Alhambra will come Elmer B. Mortensen, who will teach home arts and applied sciences. Mortensen took graduate work at Stanford University, where he also taught at one time, and has had many years of teaching experience.

Mrs. Helen Sevier of Santa Rosa will join the Sequoia staff as a teacher in homemaking. She is a graduate of the University of California and has taught in Burlingame, Oakland and at Fresno State as well as at Santa Rosa.

The fourth addition to the Sequoia staff will be Barbara Jane Young, a graduate of Stanford. After teaching for a time at junior high and high school in Santa Barbara, she entered the business world for a time. At Sequoia she will teach social living.

The appointments were ratified by the district school board at a meeting Friday.

Besides the new teachers, there will be about 80 new faces on the Sequoia campus, Argo said. Almost 80 freshmen will enter Monday as well as transfers from other high schools.

The new semester will begin with a general assembly at 8:25 a. m., presented by the student council. Following the assembly, the student fees will be paid and the students will report for regular Monday classes.

Although all Sequoia students have registered for next semester's class, there are still vacancies in stagecraft, pre-appliance machine shop, advanced sewing, choral and band classes, Argo said. Sophomores and upper classmen may still enroll in these.

Two new classes—in combustion engines and applied mathematics—will be added to the curriculum, and will be open to juniors and seniors, Argo revealed. Although these two classes are primarily pre-induction studies for boys, girls will be allowed to enroll.

MENLO PARK NEWS

Mrs. Cora Parker, who was born and reared in Menlo Park, passed away at her home Tuesday morning after a brief illness. Mrs. Parker was well known and liked in the community in which she spent her life. She was the daughter of the late William Mitton and is survived by two sisters, Evelyn Nunn of Menlo Park and Nettie Blenis of San Francisco; two brothers, William Mitton, San Francisco, and Charles Mitton of Los Gatos; a nephew, Charles Nunn, and a niece, Mrs. F. R. Andrews, both of Menlo Park. Her husband, Arthur Parker, died 40 years ago.

San Francisco Creek overflowed its banks in several places during the heavy rain of Monday. Not in many years has the stream risen to such heights. The Faber place at the mouth was covered with water for several days. No great damage is reported.

When the weather permits, the foundation for a large store on

M.P. Lions Oppose Food Canvass

The Menlo Park Lions Club is opposed to the proposal to enlist the assistance of air raid wardens in California to make a house-to-house canvass to check on statements by householders of stocks of canned goods on hand, after rationing becomes effective.

In a letter addressed to officials of local, county and state civilian defense councils the Menlo Park club said: "We wish to go on record against such an unpatriotic tendency. The slow burning of the flames of sullen anger among millions of Americans can thus be lessened."

"We, the Menlo Park Lions Club, believe that the majority of the American people are honest and are gladly making sacrifices and are doing their utmost to co-operate with their government to win this global war," it added.

the highway will be laid. The proposed building has already been leased by a Palo Alto firm.

When the weather clears, work will begin on two dwellings in Felton Gables. They will cost about $8000 each.

Miss Sally Harlow of Kansas City is here on a visit with friends. The pretty miss is so in love with the community that she may decide to remain here.

There have been no wild pigeons nor robins here notwithstanding the stormy weather and heavy rains. This blasts the old tradition that these birds come with the storm. Perhaps they have gone with the wind.

George Gomez has resigned his position on the police department to take a lucrative position at San Jose. He was a popular officer and has many friends in Menlo Park.

BONDS: Schools Contribute

Children of Redwood City are contributing to the war effort in a big way, according to R. T. Case, principal of McKinley School, the clearing house for stamp sales in elementary schools.

A total of $8,016.60 has been collected since school opened last September, the report revealed.

Highest peak in McKinley School was reached during the week preceding the Christmas holidays, Case said, when sales reached $550.50. Purchases of the opening week totaled $89.20.

To stimulate interest in the effort banners are displayed in the class rooms. Those with 100 per cent contributing are presented posters from the art department where Nick Antonoff and George Simon are doing the poster work, Case said. Three groups are announced as 100

PROGRAM: Pansy Abbott Will Speak

Miss Pansy J. Abbott, county superintendent of schools, will deliver the graduation address tomorrow afternoon when Sequoia High School holds its first mid-year commencement exercises at 1:30 in the school auditorium, A. C. Argo, superintendent of Sequoia Union High School District, announced today.

Parents and friends of the graduating seniors are invited to the exercises, Argo said.

The ceremonies will open with the salute to the flag and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," after which the orchestra will present a selection under the direction of Max Gelber. Other music on the program will include "The American Flag" composition by Otis M. Carrington, and "Aloha, Sunset Land" (Kawelo) as sung by Treble Clef chorus directed by Carrington.

The seniors will be presented by Argo, who also will deliver a short address. They will receive their diplomas from W. W. Hilston, school trustee.

The provisional list of graduating seniors includes the following:

Lucille L. P. Andrews, Lorene B. Andrus, George E. Argus, Arthur J. Bini, Charles E. Blake, G. William Boos, Clifford Boren, Bernard J. Burke, Harvey E. Culver, Nancy L. Duncan, Lorraine A. Frese, Charlotte G. Gates, Harry A. Griffith, Virgil A. Hanson, Albert J. Himes, Clarence J. Horgan.

Edwin Spence, senior class advisor, will be in charge of the exercises.

Sequoia Announces New Dance Plans

Hereafter only two district dances for Sequoia High School and eighth grade students will be given on one night, the high school recreation committee announced.

Next dances will be on Feb. 6, when San Carlos and Menlo Park students will have their frolics. At a later date, Ravenswood and Redwood City students will gather for their dances.

In another ruling laid down by the committee, "stags" will be permitted at the district dances, but will be prohibited from attending the general dances at Sequoia, at which they have caused a problem of overcrowding.

State To Decide On M.P. Streets

MENLO PARK—The question of whether five Menlo Park streets will be close to left-turn traffic on El Camino Real has been referred to the California Highway Department in Sacramento for final decision, Col. John H. Skeggs, district engineer for the department, announced today.

Colonel Skeggs said he had made his reports to Sacramento and he expected a decision within the next two or three weeks.

The Glory of Dull War Jobs

A LOT of important war jobs require us to be pretty humble and use our imagination to see the importance of the routine work we do.

We may be pushing a broom or beating a typewriter—but it still may be pretty important fighting we're doing... if it relates somehow to the war.

When 130,000,000 people are fighting a war, they can't all shoot Hitler. Even most of the men in our armed forces have to feel pretty humble and use a lot of imagination most of the time.

A few thousand are up there shooting. Several million are behind the lines, doing pretty dull things.

In his book, "See Here, Private Hargrove," Marion Hargrove wrote:

"You'll haul groceries and coal and trash and ashes. You'll unpack rifles that are buried in deep grease and you'll clean that grease off them. You'll stoke fires, you'll mop floors, and you'll put a high polish on the windows. Most of what you are taught will impress you as utterly useless nonsense."

Every fighter is backed by suppliers, by commissary flunkies, by men and women in factories, by stenographers, by floor sweepers.

No matter how far back from the front we are, we must feel the glory of our job. Even its very dullness and drudgery are a part of its glory.

Fortunately, almost all of Johns-Manville products go to fill vital war requirements or essential civilian needs. That means all J-M jobholders are war workers, even the fellows with brooms or shovels who may have a hard time figuring just how they're smacking the Axis.

Post-War Housing Means Big Market

It war years, when they arrive, will usher in not only a tremendous boom in housing construction, but a tremendous market for the sale of rugs, curtains, furniture, household supplies and all manner of appliances.

They'll bring widespread employment and vast spending power that will favorably affect our entire national economy.

Such was the forthright prediction made by a Johns-Manville Sales Corporation official to del' gates assembled from all over the nation attending the Wartime Conference of The National Retail Dry Goods Association in New York January 14.

He backed up his optimistic view by figures showing the obvious shortage in housing that will be remedied once the war is over and by trading the demand for new home-owning construction to its source. He explained that even though the rate of population growth had declined, the number of prospective home owners in the age bracket of 25 to 44 would materially increase in the post war years until at least 1950.

In logical fashion, the same speaker worked out the conclusion that in post-war years the average cost of good single family homes would drop to between $3,500 and $4,000.

"PLANE" SIGHT!

Atop the observation tower in the J-M Jarratt, Va. plant, Mrs. Louise White, keeps a vigilant eye out for planes that have no proper business in Virginia's skies, in fact she keeps two eyes glued to an excellent pair of binoculars and serves a regular stint as a "plane spotter." Her husband is C. W. White of the Traffic Dept. at Jarratt.

Despite the presence of many new workers and the increased hazard of all-out war production, J-M mines and factories set a safety record in 1942 better than the average for all industry in the U. S.

That achievement represents a distinct contribution to uninterrupted production on the "home front."

LICENSES: Deadline Is Feb. 4

Only 50 per cent of the motorists who registered their automobiles last year have applied for auto licenses this year, Capt. E. F. Cassell of the California Highway Patrol office at Redwood City announced this week. Feb. 4 is the deadline to apply, Captain Cassell warned. There is no bill before the legislature to extend the deadline, he pointed out, and without such a measure there can be no extension of time.

Penalties will be assessed autoists who have used their cars since Dec. 31, 1942, but who have not applied for their 1943 licenses before Feb. 4, Cassell said. Motorists may apply for their licenses at the CHP headquarters, 601 Marshall St., Redwood City, or mail applications to the State Department of Motor Vehicles in Sacramento. Applications sent by mail must be postmarked prior to midnight Feb. 4 to avoid penalty, Cassell said. The Redwood City CHP office will be open each day this week, including Saturday, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Cassell said.

County Employees Aid Blood Bank

San Mateo County Employees Assn. today had pledged its assistance to the Red Cross Blood Bank and is contacting employees in all county offices to enlist donors, according to Pres. Mura Stilesen. The association met Monday night at the courthouse and nominated as 1943 officers: Emil Stein, president; Edward Williams, vice president; Helen McGregor, secretary; William Wilkin, treasurer; Ted Bloomquist, William Curtis and Bradlee Smith, directors. The election will be held Feb. 15.

Average depth of the ocean below sea level is 12,450 feet.

Teachers To Honor Roy W. Cloud

Pansy Jewett Abbott, county school superintendent, has announced plans for a testimonial dinner Feb. 8 in Redwood City for Roy W. Cloud, former county school superintendent and now executive secretary of the California Teachers Assn. The dinner will be sponsored jointly by Miss Abbott and the San Mateo County Teachers Assn., Miss Abbott said.

Invitations will be extended to John W. Poole and C. M. Duxsee, Redwood City school trustees, when Cloud was city school superintendent; Mrs. Stella Jensen, president, 17th District PTA; Frank Oehm, president of the San Mateo County School Trustees Assn.; State Sen. Harry L. Parkman and Assemblyman Harrison W. Call, and Assemblyman Nelson Dillworth, chairman of the assembly's committee on education.

The dinner, Miss Abbott said, will be held at Sequoia High School's cafeteria.

Toastmasters Install Officers

Installation night at Toastmasters' Club Monday night saw Chester Armstrong inducted as president for the coming semester, Frederic Gibbs, vice president; Norman Meyer, secretary-treasurer, and Sevel Mayo, sergeant-at-arms.

Eugene Hoffman, as master of ceremonies, led a program consisting of talks by Donald Bogie, district governor of Toastmasters; Earl Whitaker, deputy governor; Dr. Virgil Anderson, critic of the club, and Dan Connor, the outgoing president, who leaves Sunday for Providence, R. I., to take a new position with his company.

Entertainment for the Toastmasters and their wives was provided by juvenile dancers taught by Dorothy Roberts.

Supervisors Refuse OK Of Park Bill

Members of the county board of supervisors meeting at Redwood City Tuesday refused a request of Winfield Scott, manager of the Butano Park Assn., to endorse the Parkman bill to appropriate state funds for the purchase of the Islam Shrine Park on Pescadero Creek as a state park.

Chairman Fred E. Beer explained that the board desired additional information on the Parkman bill. Press dispatches mentioned an asking price of $225,000 for the property.

"We understood that the figure was $150,000," Beer affirmed. "We also want to know why the State Park Commission has not purchased San Mateo County beach lands."

He said the agreement to buy the beach lands "within 60 days" had been made six months ago, and that no action has been taken.

Addition of the 1669-acre Shrine park, four miles east of Memorial Park, was placed before the state legislature yesterday. A bill authorizing the purchase of the property was introduced by State Sen. Harry L. Parkman of Millbrae.

Parkman said the asking price for the property is $225,000, and includes 1669 acres of redwoods, camp grounds, buildings and other facilities.

Arthur V. Swift of Redwood City, member of the State Park Commission and sponsor of the Islam Shrine Park purchase, said introduction of the Parkman bill was encouraging news.

Present improvements on the property include 100 guest cottages, a two-story custodian's lodge, a two-story recreation lodge, water system, sewerage, power and telephone lines.

The 1669-acre proposal does not include a 900-acre "pan-handle" with which it was planned to link the Shrine Park with the County's Memorial Park, Swift explained. That is a separate project, he said.

Swift induced the State Park Commission to meet at the Shrine Park in September.

It was at the meeting at the park, Beer said, that he understood the $150,000 figure was agreed upon.

Swift, however, said the asking price quoted by Parkman, although it was a fair price, would not be the price paid by the state. He explained that three San Mateo County realtors would be asked to appraise the property, and that their appraisal would be checked by state land appraisers.

Beer, however, made the flat

R.C. To Conduct Garden Fair

Decision to conduct a victory garden fair for home food producers in the Redwood City elementary school district was made at a meeting of the Redwood City Kiwanis Club.

Date or further plans for the program were not completed by Louis Christensen who was appointed chairman of a committee to complete these and work with the city home food production committee.

C. W. Eltringham, club member, said today the fair would resemble an old time county fair with display booths for prize agricultural commodities.

R.C. Man To Head S.M. Utility Office

Pacific Gas & Electric Co. has announced promotion of Manuel Schulz, for 13 years chief clerk of the Redwood City office, to the post of agent of the San Mateo office.

Schulz plans to move to San Mateo in the near future. He succeeds Stanley Mitchell, San Mateo agent for 14 years, who has joined the armed forces.

Adolph Imgrund, employed at the Burlingame office for 18 years, will succeed Schulz in the Redwood City office and will locate his home here immediately, the company announced.

statement that the $225,000 figure did "not parallel" the sale price of the property.

"We were present and we know what the figure was," he declared.

Figures in World War II were reflected in newly chosen San Mateo County street names today when the board of supervisors approved changes suggested by the Redwood City postmaster to eliminate confusion in mail delivery. All of the streets are in the Redwood City area.

East Redwood Ave. was changed to Douglas Ave., and Beresford Ave. to MacArthur Ave. Both new names were in honor of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Arlington Ave. became Nimitz Ave. in honor of the Pacific Fleet commander. Jefferson Ave. was changed to Montgomery Ave. in honor of the British general. Hilltop Ave. became Churchill Ave. and Portola Ave. was renamed Hull Ave. in honor of the U. S. secretary of state.

The county planning commission, which recommended the changes, said that Alameda Ave. was renamed Curtis Ave. in honor of the only U. S. service man on the street. His first name was not made part of the county record.

All renamed streets are outside of the Redwood City city limits.

PARALYSIS: Campaign Under Way

The March of Dimes campaign is in full swing in every part of San Mateo County today, according to Chairman T. J. Hallinan of the San Mateo County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

An earlier start was impossible, Hallinan said, because of the delayed arrival of literature, cans for the dimes, and other material essential to the annual drive.

In Redwood City the campaign is under the direction of Postmaster R. E. O'Connell Jr. In Burlingame activities are managed by Claude F. Hirschey of the San Francisco Bank, Henry Misselwitz of the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce has charge of the work in that city. Postmaster Harry B. Morey of Menlo Park is directing the work in that section.

As in previous years, the San Mateo chapter is conducting a subscription campaign and a drive through all schools of the county, with County Supt. Pansy J. Abbott in general charge of the latter phase of the fund-raising project. The various theaters

Turner Answers In Van Ree Case

Atty. J. E. McCurdy today had filed in superior court an answer to the $100,000 seduction suit of Cornelia Van Ree, 18, against her brother-in-law, G. E. Turner of San Mateo. In it Turner denied that he had ever done anything to cause the unwed San Mateo mother any loss, injury or damage.

Miss Van Ree has named Turner as the father of her child. Also pending in superior court is a suit for temporary support for Miss Van Ree and the child. Trial has been set for Feb. 10.

of the county will direct individual campaigns to swell the fund. These will be announced within a few days, Chairman Hallinan said.

Because of the late starting date of the drive, Hallinan thinks it unlikely that the dime cans will be collected before Feb. 8.

Cans for the drive in San Mateo are those manufactured of tin for the 1942 March of Dimes. After the campaign has closed, these cans will be sent to the destination plant at South San Francisco and there will join the "Salvage for Victory" collection.

Cigaret Campaign Honors Services

A tribute to American war workers in the great industries like the railroads, the telephone, shipbuilding, motors, and aviation, will be the feature of a new series of advertisements for Chesterfield cigarettes. The new series will run in newspapers coast to coast and in Hawaii and Alaska, starting the first week in February.

The first advertisement in the new series pays tribute to the railroad workers of the country. Its caption, "They Deliver the Goods," describes the grand job the railroads are doing in keeping the trains rolling and seeing to it that troops, supplies and essential traffic get the right of way.

The ad says Chesterfields, too, "deliver the goods . . . they give smokers what they want because of their right combination (blend) of the world's best cigarette tobaccos."

Similarly, another ad in the series shows a picture of a transport pilot and tells how America's 700,000 aviation workers make and deliver planes and other war necessities to our fighting men all over the world.

The ad points out how important cigarettes are to men in the service and says, "That's why billions of milder, better-tasting Chesterfields are being shipped by train and truck and ship and plane to every corner of the globe."

Each ad carries prominently a strong reminder to "Back up the man in uniform: Buy War Bonds . . . Write Letters." When a similar reminder was featured in a Chesterfield ad early in January this year, the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., who make Chesterfields, received a lot of favorable comment about it from the Treasury Department, from the general public and particularly from men in uniform, who like nothing better than to get letters from their relatives and friends back home.

Fremont Rifle Group Undergoes Training

MENLO PARK—The Fremont Rifles, state militia company, is continuing an intensive course of training in military fundamentals according to Dr. Robert M. Leggett, company clerk. On Jan. 17 the company went on field maneuvers, covering a triangular area by aid of map and compass. On Jan. 24 the com-

New Concerts Scheduled

SAN FRANCISCO—The Trapp Family Singers, who proved a sensation on the European concert stage before coming to this country, will give their first concert in San Francisco on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 31, at 2:30 at the Curran Theater.

The concert will afford opportunity to hear rarely sung works of Bach, Mozart and other masters, performed on instruments for which they were originally written. Their specialty is a cappella singing of church and secular music, folk songs and yodels. The singers appear in Tyrolean costume.

In a big double attraction, the San Francisco Opera Association will present Richard Crooks, Metropolitan tenor, and William Primrose, violinist, at the War Memorial Opera House Sunday afternoon, Feb. 7, at 2:30.

This is the first of the opera association's concert events to be held in the Opera House this year, and the advance seat reservation indicates a capacity house, according to the management.

An American artist, Crooks found his greatest life inspirations in Enrico Caruso and Ernestine Schumann-Heink. As a boy, he earned the money for his future studies in music and at the same time sang in various church choirs. His first big opportunity came when he returned as a veteran of World War I and accepted an offer from Walter Damrosch to be a guest artist of the Symphony Society of New York. He was finally ready to pursue his studies in Europe. His first role was at the Berlin State Opera. Subsequently, he returned to America and shortly thereafter made his debut at the Metropolitan.

Primrose, born in Scotland, was a recognized artist of the highest caliber in England and on the continent prior to his coming to this country. Today critics agree that he stands alone in his art.

Tickets for the concerts are now on sale at the opera box office, Sherman, Clay & Company, EXbrook 8585.

Jack Lynch May Refuse To Sign Renewal of Contract

After the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors Tuesday extended for five months the contract of Jack A. Lynch, tax deed-land reclamation agent, Lynch told newspapermen there was a serious question whether or not he would sign it.

The board's action followed strong protests by County Executive Frederick Peterson and representatives of the San Mateo County Central Labor Council.

Only three members of the board were present, but Chairman Fred E. Beer said Supervisor E. R. McDonald of Burlingame, ill at his home, had no objection to the five-month extension.

"The board's action is binding upon the county, but not on me," said Lynch after the meeting adjourned. "There is a question whether or not I will sign the contract. If I don't accept, I'll give my reasons next Tuesday."

He added that he was not receiving co-operation from some county departments, but excluded from this category the board of supervisors and Tax Collector Ralph C. MacArthur.

MacArthur, meanwhile, said the Lynch contract was the board's problem, but stated he was ready to take over the task of reclaiming tax deed lands if the supervisors so desired.

MacArthur said the district attorney had ruled that it was a matter of choice for the tax collector to undertake reclamation of tax deed lands.

"The work was originally taken from this office," MacArthur said, "and I feel that's where it belongs. This office could handle it with a little extra help."

In accordance with a 1942 charter amendment, the board authorized the district attorney to draft a code of procedure for county offices. Beer said McDonald had withdrawn previous objections to assigning the task to the county officer.

The board referred to the planning commission a resolution from Matalan Post (San Mateo) Veterans of Foreign Wars, urging that war memorials and veterans buildings be included in the post-war construction program. The resolution called for a meeting of city and county planning com-

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Hunches for Carry-Lunches

The lunchbox has assumed an important place in our daily menu these days. And sometimes it taxes the imagination to a straining point to keep those carry-lunches from becoming monotonous. There are ways, though, of making them as appetizing as the other meals. And we're passing along a few hints that may help to add interest to meals that go to work.

THE BREAD'S IMPORTANT

Sandwiches are the mainstay of the lunchbox . . . and that means bread. Be sure the bread is fresh. Keep the crusts on because they add chewiness, and besides, crusts help to keep the sandwiches from drying out.

Vary the bread, too. There are a number of different breads to change ordinary sandwiches from day to day. One trick in a bread way is to spread the sandwich between two kinds of bread like white and whole wheat. Since nutrition is important, it's important to see to it that the white bread is enriched so that none of that important vitamin B is sacrificed.

MAKE THOSE FILLINGS HEARTY

Dainty sandwiches haven't any place in the workman's lunchbox. Make them with fillings that stick to the ribs. Spread the bread first with butter, butter substitute, mayonnaise, salad dressing, or prepared sandwich spread. This steps up the flavor and keeps that freshly-made flavor.

The fillings should be generous . . . a third to a half the thickness of the bread. This is not the place to be saving.

MEAT FILLINGS—Cold cuts, cold roasts, meat loaves, canned meats, chicken, and fish are all welcome when lunchtime comes around. If you want to stretch them, then grind the meat and add olives, pickles, hard-cooked eggs or chopped cheese.

EGG FILLINGS—Chopped hard-cooked eggs with mayonnaise or mixed with relish, cheese, bits of leftover cooked bacon, ham, olives, relish or chopped nuts have that substantial quality that workers need.

CHEESE—Sliced cheese or chopped cheese mixed with dressings, meats, and relishes can add variety and deliciousness to that lunchbox.

PEANUT BUTTER—There are hosts of ways this favorite can be changed to avoid monotony. Send it along plain one day, mix it with honey, jam, jelly, sliced fruits and tomatoes for those other days.

Working Together

... though worlds apart

HANDLING HOT STUFF! That's the wartime job of Jim and his Dad. Jim is overseas on the firing line. Dad is at home keeping the power flowing to vital industries.

Since Pearl Harbor more than one hundred and fifty men of this company each month have gone into the armed forces of Uncle Sam. Many of these are sons of veteran employees.

These Dads are working with grim determination to step up the production of electric power, because that means the production of more war goods. These Dads are doing all they can to make sure that their sons, and all the other sons wearing the uniform, are the best equipped, the best clothed, the best fed men of any military power in the world.

Today the Dads and their fellow workers in the P. G. and E. ranks are delivering a greatly increased amount of power over two years ago. They have a pride in doing it. They have a pride in the equipment with which they work. There are giant powerhouses in the mountains, a vast network of interconnected transmission lines and distribution lines, together with substations, trucks and tools. All these are geared to take on the increasing demands for more power for war production purposes.

California can be confident these men will keep the kilowatts marching steadily on in war work, that the reserves will respond promptly if they are called upon.

About Peanuts and Peanut Butter
Did you know that peanuts and peanut butter contribute the same appetite sustaining qualities to the diet as meat? Besides that, they're crum-packed with that terrifically important vitamin B you've heard so much about. They're a subtle food, too, for they can be slipped into the menu menu anywhere to add much to the flavor.

SALADS GO FOR PEANUTS—Take most any salad, meat, vegetable or fruit, toss in a generous handful of chopped peanuts, salted or plain, and it's just that much better than it was before.

PEANUT-COTTAGE CHEESE SALAD—Blend in about half as much peanut butter as cottage cheese, then add your other favorite ingredients such as chives, onions, grated vegetables. It has the flavor that will please.

PEANUT BUTTER GOES SAUCY—A couple of teaspoons of peanut butter in white sauce do wonders for the flavor and color. It mingles easily with a bit of blending.
